Meet Brad and Luca

With a reputation of outstanding customer care, Brad Lipp extends a dynamic sales history with a philosophy of consistent hard work, strategic planning and personalised service. Brad has over 20 years experience within the industry and has an open and straight-forward approach to every aspect of his business, from providing simple advice to his clients through to the negotiation and sale of property.

Following Brad closely is Luca his trusty offsider. Luca has recently joined the Colliers team, previously starting his career in the real estate industry. Luca prides himself on his professionalism and ability to consitently deliver a very high standard of service to his clients.

Brad and Luca love giving back to the community and are proud to be sponsoring this event.
