List of useful websites

1. www.bullyingnoway.gov.au
   - Provides advice on understanding bullying, responding to bullying, preventing bullying and teaching about bullying.
   - Policies and procedures can be viewed online by clicking on:
     (1) 'Responding to bullying'
     (2) 'How Australian schools respond' and
     (3) 'Policy and procedures'.

2. www.esafety.gov.au
   - Provides advice on how to make a complaint about cyberbullying, educations resources, safety information, advice for parents and carers, and certified training providers of online safety programs.

3. www.playbytherules.net.au
   - Provides a social media template that can be a starting point for social media policy – including bullying and cyberbullying. It also provides a 'social media context' document to help inform the reasons for having a policy. This can be found by clicking on:
     (1) 'Resources'
     (2) 'Templates' and
     (4) 'Social Media Policy'.

4. www.studentwellbeinghub.edu.au
   - The Australian student wellbeing framework can be viewed by clicking on:
     (1) 'Educators explore' and
     (2) 'Framework'.

5. www.sportaus.gov.au
   - Provides a template for 'member protection, including information on making sports safe, fair and inclusive and a section on cyberbullying. This can be viewed by clicking on:
     (1) 'Integrity in Sport'
     (2) 'Integrity Templates and Principles' and
     (3) 'Member protection policy template'.

6. www.behaviour.education.qld.gov.au
   - There is a range of advice and guidance that can be viewed on managing cyberbullying and bullying through clicking on:
     (1) 'Cybersafety' or
     (2) 'Preventing bullying and violence'.

7. www.qld.gov.au
   - Provides access to resources and advice on cyberbullying by clicking on:
     (1) 'Education and training'
     (2) 'Schools'
     (3) 'Health and Wellbeing'
     (4) 'Bullying and Cyberbullying'.